

Benefits of Membership

Political benefits:

- Membership in a strong, province-wide organization dedicated to representing and supporting professional homeopaths
- Advocacy and liaison regarding federal and provincial initiatives affecting homeopathy

Business benefits:

- Website directory listing with link to a member bio page
- Ready to use patient intake forms and consent forms reviewed by our lawyer
- Two options of full colour brochures exclusive to BCAH members
- Discounted advertising rates from the Health Action Network Society for our members
- Exposure to the public of the Association website directory through advertising with the Health Action Network Society and Health Shows
- Exclusive option to have your community events posted on our website
- Certificate of membership
- Extended health coverage for services provided by our members (BCAH is an approved association with ClaimSecure)
- Community, networking and a source of referrals

Professional development benefits:

- Discounted rates for Association conferences and seminars
- Professional development opportunities such as regional workshops and the annual BC Association of Homeopaths Case Conference
- Newsletter bulletins with Articles and Upcoming Event announcements
- Exclusive access to the online Newsgroup

Insurance benefits:

- Access to Professional liability insurance
- Optional home, auto, life and extended health insurance

With Many more benefits – coming soon